

A Letter To Our Guests

As it has always been, the safety and security of our guests, patrons, and team members remains our highest priority. As our talented Food Service Trained Professionals continue to provide the best in customer service and produce the highest quality food, it is imperative that we are aware of our responsibility as Food Service Professionals and to initiate additional steps to ensure our customers are safe and comfortable during this uncertain COVID-19 evolving situation.

Marlin Moon wants to ensure its guests have faith and confidence that we have taken all best practices and recommendations from the CDC, WHO, Health Department, State, and Local authorities with regards to limiting COVID-19 and other influenza viral transmissions. Marlin Moon Management and Staff continue to monitor CDC and WHO regulations and have initiated extra precautions to further protect our guests and team members from COVID-19.

Marlin Moon has:

- Increased steps to reduce hand contact with food surfaces in addition to health department glove wearing regulation in all hand to food contact
- Added hospital grade sanitizer in strategic locations
- Created extra distance between dining tables
- Initiated additional sanitizing of practices of stainless steel surfaces
- Increased staff to ensure each table and contents are properly sanitized after each seating
- Continued to inform and teach our Food Service Professionals of new and ongoing best practices
- Increased Carry-Out Preparation in the event an infected person wants to enjoy the best Marlin Moon has to offer without putting our guests and team at risk

Marlin Moon strives to provide the best in customer service and food quality to also include the safety and security of our guests, team members, and community. If you have any questions, comments, concerns, or recommendations, please reach out so we can continue to be on the front lines of the COVID-19 evolving situation.

We appreciate your faith and confidence that the Marlin Moon team has your concerns in mind while we continue to produce and perform at the highest level and continue to support a healthy community!

Sincerely,

Marlin Moon Management
